On March 15, 1989, VA was elevated to Cabinet-level status as the Department of Veterans Affairs. The VAs mission is to serve Americas veterans and their families as their principal advocate in ensuring that they receive the care, support, and recognition they have earned in service to the Nation. The VAs operating units include the Veterans Health Administration, Veterans Benefits Administration, National Cemetery Administration, and staff offices. The Veterans Health Administration develops, maintains, and operates a national health care delivery system for eligible veterans; carries out a program of education and training of health care personnel; carries out a program of medical research and development; and furnishes health services to members of the Armed Forces during periods of war or national emergency. A system of 157 hospitals, 879 outpatient clinics, 133 nursing homes, and 42 VA residential rehabilitation treatment programs (formerly called domicilaries) is maintained to meet the VAs medical mission. The Veterans Benefits Administration provides an integrated program of nonmedical veteran benefits. This Administration administers a broad range of benefits to veterans and other eligible beneficiaries through 58 regional offices and the records processing center in St. Louis, MO. The benefits provided include: compensation for service-connected disabilities; pensions for wartime, needy, and totally disabled veterans; vocational rehabilitation assistance; educational and training assistance; home buying assistance; estate protection services for veterans under legal disability; information and assistance through personalized contacts; and six life insurance programs. The National Cemetery Administration provides for the interment of the remains of eligible deceased se. . . This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
