Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Newspaperman The man or woman who turns for employment or a life s labor to the newspaper faces first the conditioning fact that he cannot win without a special and particular equipment not needed in other callings. This is equally true of all periodicals, the daily, the weekly, or the monthly, to journalism in any of its five forms of article, story, news, comment, and paid publicity. Any man who has health, strength, physical and mental, average ability, industry, and the untiring will, can garner a fair harvest in divinity, law, medicine, engineering, or business. The top may not be his, but a fair, commodious middle can be won in which and on which he can live in comfort all his days and leave a shapely tombstone in a lot, with room for a growing and surviving family.
