iUniverse, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mission Statement: As poets we aspire to reach higher by living life through our passion for writing, providing therapy, entertainment, and joy for all readers. Also becoming that voice for those, who, for various reasons, are unable to express openly how they feel. The healing and closure can and will be heard through our writing, we hope to reach many. As we have been inspired to write by life s lessons, our intent is to be that motivation which will allow the hesitant to speak and stand up without compromise, but do it with respect, dignity, and a certain level of sensitivity to others, we will be understood. As you get to know us, very quickly, you will conclude we are very similar to you, a visual tape recorder constantly recording, absorbing, internalizing, and forming opinions to be, in most cases, stored away and never again retrieved. To that end, we re driven to rewind and press play so the masses can unite and realize, as human beings, we all are very much the same, though cosmetically, economically, and socially different. Together we can meet at your favorite get away location, stand on common ground, and communicate without inhibitions. After our encounter, we will forever be connected through words of reception, and if we choose to, continue to grace one another with strength and gifting, as we pass what we ve shared to those in our paths. If for some reason we only measure our similarities and growth on one occasion, may your journey be blessed and patterned in love, giving, peace, and total fulfillment. For those that are engaged, let s ride the radiant rainbow while the...
