A non-fiction book. With 71 b/w illustrations, copious notes, index. This book is an original and challenging view on Leonardo Da Vinci and his mother. The author presents newly found documents pointing to a Chinese origin for Leonardo's mysterious mother, a simple domestic slave taken to Florence via Crimea and Venice. A paradox which become a viable possibility. We read of several unorthodox views on Leonardo Da Vinci. For instance, the author sees the Mona Lisa - like Sigmund Freud did in 1910 - as an image of his mother, Caterina. Furthermore he sees Leonardo as a sexually abused and abandoned child; a vegetarian, a left handed self thought man. We discover that the picture of Ginevra de' Benci kept at Washington's National Gallery could be a real life portrait of Catherina, Leonardo's Chinese mother. A very engrossing and well documented book on the great Florentine Genius of the Renaissance. From the Introduction: We know that he was born on 15 April 1452 in Vinci, Tuscany, out of wedlock and unwanted,...
