Children are a wonderful gift that require attention, education, and nurturing. The use of fun activities, songs, and prayers can help young children begin to learn about the Catholic faith and the importance of safety in a simple, fun, and unique way. Take this opportunity to help your child remember that safety is part of our faith. This book is perfect for children through 8 years old. Home school families, catholic school educators, catechists, DREs, Childrens Liturgy of the Word leaders, and parents can utilize these activities, songs, and poems as a supplement to a formal religion program or as a way to welcome, introduce, or close a session. This book is also perfect for long trips in the car, airplane, or train, waiting in restaurants, waiting for siblings at activities, and as a family evening activity. Have fun engaging your children and teaching our faith. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
