Richard Ankony, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book started out with the most innocent of intentions until it acquired a life of it s own which left me with the impression that it had become something out of the movie, National Treasure. My 98 year old father of whom I love dearly is my oldest friend on the earth and has been put into an old age home through no fault of his own by ways and means too gruesome to depict in the public square. My king has been captured and imprisoned now and I am his courier for this book. Throughout the years my father has told me many stories in detail of yesteryear and one story in particular stood out since about 1990. That story of which this book is about was an event my father witnessed around 1932 at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. My father witnessed certain pieces of fabric upholstery being torn and taken from the original Abraham Lincoln s chair in which he was assassinated in on April 14, 1865. My father further read at that time certain original Abraham Lincoln papers that were also there that were taken, of which the contents that were described to me I found to be disturbing. The problem is, the original Abraham Lincoln s assassination chair is believed for the last 85 years since 1929 to be at the Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Michigan. It is stated that Henry Ford, the automobile magnate, bought the original chair in 1929 and brought it up to Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Michigan to be put on display and kept there ever since. Yet my 98-year-old father told me over and over again that...
