Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a timely piece that raises important issues concerning our educational and moral obligations to the children of our nation. Issues that must be discussed and resolved if we are going to be a nation that can compete in a global society. I find this book inspiring and admire the passion of the authors. They have set forth challenges and resolutions that demand attention. This book is recommended for all who are serious about providing a quality education for all children regardless of race, social economic status, or circumstances of birth. -Norvella Carter, Ph. I totally endorse this book. The authors are obviously in tune with where the focus should be in dealing with school violence and discipline in our school. I think that this should be a required reading...
