Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Plan and Methods in Municipal Efficiency The Milwaukee Bureau of Economy and Efficiency is engaged in a municipal survey along the lines of the Pittsburgh Survey and the activities of bureaus of municipal research of other cities, but is of broader scope than either. This survey has two principal sections, the first, a study of the social and economic conditions within the city; the second, a study of the economy and efficiency of municipal departments. The social survey inquires widely into the conditions of living within the city. Studies are being made of health and sanitary problems, housing conditions, accidents to workmen, standard of living, and kindred subjects, and definite plans will be proposed for the advance of the city to the best social conditions. The survey of business efficiency inquires into the organization, administration, accounting, finance, business practice, construction, and operation work performed by the various departments of the city government, and will work out economical and efficient business systems for these departments. Beyond its work for the city departments, the bureau seeks to become a part of the general movement for the advance of the city along material and social lines, and co-operates to this end wherever possible with local business, industrial, civic, and social organizations and with state and national organizations of similar character. The Social Survey The social survey is not an exhaustive investigation intended to expose conditions or to furnish material for social philosophy, but a means of measuring the efficiency or discovering the inefficiency of city government. It is based on the principle that the municipal government is a social corporation conducted for the health, welfare, and prosperity of...
