Delta/Kaveri Book Service, New Delhi, India, 2013. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. First Edition. Swami Vivekananda, who is one of the greatest thinkers of the modern India, has made immense contribution to the national integration of India. He imbibed the Indians with the proper understanding of their countrys great spiritual heritage, and thus, instilled in them due pride in their pristine glorious past. Sense of mission, amelioration of masses and adherence to the core values were some the factors which gave solid strength and sense of purpose and direction to the Indians national movement. The present volume contains twenty-four papers contributed by eminent scholars, on the occasion of 150th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. These papers have articulated on various aspects of national integration and prospects of the pre-independence India, which were close the heart of Swamiji and are contextual even in the present day times. The readers would be immensely benefitted from the precious and scholastic exposition by Swami Vivekananda as a means to attainment of integration of India in moralistic terms. The strength of this volume rests on myriad subjects it has delved on along with projections of the priceless discourses.
