Tmd Enterprises, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Sherri Baker (illustrator). 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Charles Noland's latest book, The Spooky Lighthouse, seven-year-old Drew and his five-year-old sister Ellie head to the beach for another adventure with the Magical Dress. Written for children ages five through nine, this book is the fifth installment in The Adventures of Drew and Ellie series. When Drew and Ellie spend a week at their aunt's beach house in North Carolina, they discover an interesting lighthouse nearby. They become very intrigued when a neighbor tells them the chilling tale of Salty Pete, a fisherman lost at sea, whose ghost is rumored to visit the lighthouse on stormy nights. One afternoon, when Ellie suggests she and Drew use the Magical Dress to go to the lighthouse to look for seashells, an approaching storm forces them to seek shelter in the old building. Once inside, Drew starts to climb the stairs to do some exploring, but a sudden scream from Ellie thwarts his plans. As the two try to discover the source of some strange sounds coming from behind a closed door, they both wonder]could it really be the legendary ghost of Salty Pete? Facing their fears, Drew and Ellie once again learn the importance of being brave. Through an enchanting story and engaging pictures, The Spooky Lighthouse combines the suspense of a good ghost story with the positive message that young people really can make a difference in the world. It's a fun beach story that again shows, through Drew and Ellie's positive modeling of sibling relationships, that children can accomplish great things by working together.
