Fight in a railway car near Nashville; a minister punishes a border ruffian. Confound those newspaper fellows! Vincent muttered to himself as he walked away. They pick up every scrap of news. I suppose a reporter got hold of some one who was in the car. Turning down a quiet street, he opened the paper and by the light of the lamp read a graphic and minute account of the struggle in the train. I won t go back to the hotel, he said to himself. I shall be having reporters to interview me. I shall be expected to give them a history of my whole life; where I was born, and where I went to school, and whether I prefer beef to mutton, and whether I drink beer, and a thousand other things. No; the sooner I am away the better. As to the hotel, I have only had one meal, and they have got the bag with what clothes there...
